

Ed Sbordone

Candidate for Board of Education, New Fairfield

Ed is currently on the New Fairfield Board of Board of Education.

Elected in November of 2015, Ed is currently a member of the Board of Education. Ed and his wife have lived in New Fairfield since December of 1995. Their daughter attended New Fairfield schools since Kindergarten.

Ed is a financial professional with extensive experience in municipality finance and at a Fortune 100 Company. Major strengths include managerial, analytical and technical skills.

Since 2003, Ed has been elected to the following Town Boards: Board of Finance (Alternate 03-05, Full Member 05-07), Library Board of Directors (07-11), and Board of Education (15 – present). Through these positions, he has extensive experience. Currently, Ed is the Town's Finance Director and Acting Treasurer and has been employed by the Town over the past 13 years in various financial positions. He is also a member of the Town's Permanent Building Committee.

During his current tenure, he has attended all of the Board of Education meetings and his assigned Board of Education Sub-Committee meetings. He is currently the chairman of the Business Operations/Resource Management Subcommittee and a member of the Communications/Community Outreach and School Start Time Ad Hoc Subcommittees.

Ed understands the importance of commitment to the Board of Education and its important role in serving the citizens of New Fairfield.

If elected, Ed pledges to:

- Continue his emphasis on and contribution to the improvement of the education process for our children.
- Continue his support for the proposed school building projects.
- Work cooperatively with the Board of Finance and Board of Selectmen on issues of high priority to parents and the community.

“I see the main challenges currently facing the Board of Education and the school district as the proposed school building projects, test scores, the special needs program, and drugs and alcohol. These challenges will be main topics at future Board of Education meetings, and I feel that they need to be continually addressed with a sense of urgency.”
