

Greg Williams

Candidate for Board of Finance Alternate,
New Fairfield

Greg is currently on the New Fairfield Planning Commission Alternates.

Greg, his wife Katie, their daughter Anna and their boxer Dempsey have been New Fairfield residents for five years. He is originally from western Pennsylvania and first moved to Connecticut in 2003. Greg is the Chief Experience Officer at the Lloyd Bedford Cox, Inc. insurance agency in Bedford Hills, NY where he has worked for the past sixteen years. Greg received his BA in History from Middlebury College in 2002 and achieved the insurance industry's most rigorous professional designation, Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU), in 2017. He is also a (very) new member of the Ball Pond Fire Company, and the Vice Moderator of the Congregational Church of New Fairfield.

Greg understands the importance of commitment to the Board of Finance Alternates and its important role in serving the citizens of New Fairfield.

If elected, Greg pledges to:

- Support actions & decisions that promote increased commerce and social activity in our town center.
- Protect the interests of all taxpayers by supporting only those expenditures necessary to maintain or efficiently enhance our town's facilities and services.

"It's been my pleasure to serve as part of the Planning Commission and I look forward to continuing my contributions to our delightful town as part of the Board of Finance, if the voters will have me."
