

Josh Becket Flores

Candidate for Board of Assessment Appeals, New Fairfield

Josh Beckett Flores is dedicated to the values and commitment of community service. Raised in Bristol, Connecticut, Josh came to New Fairfield in 2015 after marrying his wife Elisa – a stay-at-home mom and caretaker. An active member of the New Fairfield Democratic Town Committee, Josh became interested in politics at a young age from watching his father’s work as a civil attorney. At 10 years old, he was handing out flyers on Election Day, and by 16, Josh was knocking on doors for local candidates.

Josh has been dedicated to giving back and helping people in need. An effort he first started in his hometown - volunteering with his local church and community soup kitchen - and continued as a student at Western Connecticut State University, where he received his bachelor’s degree in 2005. As an active member on local boards and committees, Josh connected with and advocated for people whose personal stories highlighted achievements made through hard work and partnership.

Josh and Elisa have one daughter, Parker Ann and their cat, Luna.

Josh understands the importance of commitment to the Board of Assessment Appeals and its important role in serving the citizens of New Fairfield.

If elected, Josh pledges to:

- Being a fair and impartial member of the Board of Assessment Appeals.
- Listen and lead for all the people in New Fairfield.

“After coming to New Fairfield, I wanted to step up and serve our town in a way which would connect the resources and talent we have. New Fairfield needs a vision and I’m proud to be a member of a team which is looking ahead and will work for everyone in New Fairfield.”
