

About – Kerrie Hess Greening

Kerrie Hess Greening

Candidate for Tax Collector, New Fairfield

Kerrie is currently the Tax Collector for New Fairfield.

Kerrie has been employed in the Tax Collector's Office full time since 1986 and was first elected Tax Collector in 1993. She has been a Connecticut Certified Municipal Collector since 1989. Kerrie has served on numerous committees including the Fireman/EMS Abatement Program, Elderly Tax Relief, and Town Website, as well as numerous County and State organizations.

Kerrie grew up in New Fairfield. She attended Western Connecticut State University. Kerrie and her husband Ron have two grown children who attended and graduated from the New Fairfield Public Schools. She is a longtime member of the Congregational Church of New Fairfield.

Kerrie understands the importance of commitment to the position of Tax Collector and its important role in serving all the citizens of New Fairfield.

If elected, Kerrie pledges to:

- Continue to promote the financial stability of the Town of New Fairfield with a collection rate consistently above 99%.
- Continue to maintain proper checks and balances between the Tax Collector and Assessor.
- Work collaboratively with the Board of Selectman, the Board of Finance, and the Treasurer.

“It has been my pleasure serving as Tax Collector, and I will continue to effectively manage the collection of taxes so that New Fairfield can maintain their exemplary bond rating.”